

Engineer Intern

The Intern is a position reporting to the Substation and Line Design Project Engineers. This position will be required to provide design, specifications and construction documents. The position requires a strong interest in power systems and design and construction of electrical high voltage systems.

PRIMARY DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Gather all pertinent information of projects and document scope of each project
- Prepare material lists, plan, elevation and detail drawings for substation projects
- Prepare engineering and construction drawings
- Interact with Project Engineers and support the team

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS

- Currently a junior or senior enrolled in Electrical, Civil, or Mechanical Engineering program
- Excellent interpersonal skills as well as verbal and written communications skills
- Ability to work collaboratively with individuals at all levels in the organization in a team environment

POSITION REQUIREMENTS

- Requires ability of limited travel, up to 25-%
- Valid driver's license required
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills to build and maintain the reporting and working relationships
- Software experience: MS Office, AutoCAD
- Primary Location: Arnold, Missouri